The whys and hows of pre-planning your final arrangements

The right time to plan is now

Here’s WHY:

Pre-planning helps families at an emotional time

Pre-planning can save up to thousands of dollars

You choose how you want to be remembered

Planning promotes a sense of comfort

Pre-planning helps families at an emotional time

Celebrating life, your way, by planning any or every stage of your final services

By planning ahead you can create unique arrangements based on your specific needs and wishes

The Official Family Registry™ from Arbor Memorial

Fees are frozen at today’s low price, beating inflation

You determine the budget, reducing risk of emotional over-spending

Choose convenient terms

The right time to plan is now

Here’s HOW:

1. Consider your needs

2. Compose your information

3. Create your unique plan

4. Complete financial details

By planning ahead you can create unique arrangements based on your specific needs and wishes

Fact

Your legal Will is NOT a reliable place to record your funeral and cemetery wishes because the Will may not be read until AFTER the final services are already over

Good to know

Although just 20% of Canadian families are currently planning for their final arrangements, 70% of Canadians surveyed know little to nothing about their partner’s final wishes*

By working with a pre-planning professional, families can:

• Create organized and personalized options
• ease administrative burden
• Maintain privacy
• Control costs
• Avoid over-spending

*Environics Research, Canadian Adult Survey, 2015

Arbor Memorial Inc.

*result of 2015 survey conducted by Environics Research, commissioned by Arbor Memorial Inc.